The route lay through Washington street to Twelfth, thence to Hudson, which is asphalted-luckily for Mrs. Hetty Green's elderly bones-and thence to the ferry. As the procession, headed by the lurching cab, roared past Stevens Institute, at Fifth and Hudson streets, 200 students loafing about the campus joined in trying their best to overtake the cab, sounding their class yells as they tore along.

into the roadway and with a swinging leap nabbed the cab horse by the bridle As he slid along trying to halt the bewildered animal the cabman yelled out something to him and Dennis

The cab held its lead over all the pursuers as it shot under the train shed. The three women were out of the coach before it haited. They ran across the tracks of the platform to where the private car Ivoydale stood hitched on behind the Morristown express, which had steam up, ready to leave at 9.23.

Guests Were Walting. Various members of the party of specially invited guests had already boarded the Ivorydale and from its windows they waved a welcome to the three women scudding through the shed. Mrs. Hetty Green was first aboard the car. in the employ of the Lackawanna, kept the crowd of pursuers off the platform by main force until the train pulled out.

So far as could be learned the trip was without incident. When the exit dropped the private car. Those on board entered carriages which were waiting for them at the station and yesterday afternoon.

was the message:

brown cloth, embroidered with white, self out for $10 worth, with white feather boa and a white hat. I will wear the black gown which I now have on." The guests stayed inside the inn until five minutes to 12 o'clock when, without any effort at forming a procession, they walked across the street to St. Peter's, a pretty little Episcopal church directly opposite the hotel. Here the rector, the Reverend Philemon F. Sturgis, met them. The tiny interior of St. Peter's had been decorated with a modest array the Mendelssohn Wedding March as the of Bearvilles. bridal party entered.

Cousin Gave Her Away.

York, who gave her away. Next came in my apartment house. I'll attend to Mrs. Hetty Green, alone. The bridegroom walked with his best man, young already." Woodbury Langdon, who is also his The wealthy Mr Barnum was advised The shorter Episcopal ceremony was used.

The doors were closed during the marriage and no outsiders except a reported six absent teeth and the other few villagers who had slipped inside a dislocated jaw and twisted nose. some day have an income of $5,000 a Bearville, called up Arthur Blake, lift the Criminal Branch of the Supreme home for indigent newspaper men. day. The guests proper, who numbered operator, from the basement, where he Court before Justice Dowling. about forty all told, filled the front of was polishing the elevator motor, and the little autditorium. They included demanded to be taken upstairs. Where fice of the defendant lawyer and took agers of the Savoy, New Netherlands, ine Wilks, Mrs. Byam Stevens and Mrs. none of the dark complected Mr. Blake's law, Woodbury G. Langdon; his two marquise ring dented him on the chin. nieces, the Misses Sophie and Helen Langdon, who are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury Langdon; his work. Bellhop Blake might have lasted brother, Langdon Wilks; his brother-in- two rounds had there been any inter-Mr. and Mrs. Amory Carhart, of Tux- stars. Mr. and Mrs. Amory Carhart, of Tuxedo; Mrs. Charles Brown Oakley, Mrs.
George Washington Brown, Blake's widely from the statements he made will-known men as President RooseTouts T. Hoyt, Shipley Jones, Mrs.
assistant, awoke and came up stairs to to the Grand Jury.

Ruth Lawrence, Charles Emmet and Mr. LeRoy.

Just as the wedding party issued from 6th. Peter's rain began to come down heavily and there was a great raising of umbrellas. Seeing a battery of cameras almed her way, the bride drew her feather boa about her face and shrank back. But her mother pushed aside the umbrella which one of the men would have held between her and the photographers and stood smiling at them.

Ruth Lawrence, Charles Emmet and done please. Presently he went down places. Presently he went down tairs again, making what might down stairs again, making what might down stairs again, making what might be called an original descent. Only the count for this sudden change District. Attorney Jerome obtained from De Verona encount for this sudden change District. Attorney Jerome obtained from De Verona scientific down stairs again, making what might down stairs again, making what might be called an original descent. Only the Verona economic of the latter's part (1906 to $25 each.

He Went for Help.

John Kennedy, the superintendent of the building, did not go upstairs to interview the poevish strawberry blonds. But her mother pushed aside the umbrella which one of the men would have held between her and the photographers and stood smiling at them.

Ruth Lawrence, Charles Emmet and others equally prominent, all of which were represented by the youth attorney varing from De Werona account for this sudden change District. Attorney Jerome obtained from De down the latter's part (when were represented by the youth a roll of bills, all of which were marked. As he. left was to possible the was agreed to youth a roll of bills, all of which were marked. As he. left was followed, which was endicted by the Court account of the vortine date of when planted the examination proceed. The west Scientar of March 15, 1908, was clientified. "Unas so informed." The color all the examination proceed the was told by a Mr. The color and the examination proceed. The work scientified which was ended by the Court accounts of wh feather boa about her face and shrank back. But her mother pushed aside the umbrella which one of the men would have held between her and the photographers and stood smiling at them.

Thus the animated scene soon shifted raphers and stood smiling at them.

Thus the animated scene soon shifted raphers and stood smiling at them.

Thus the animated scene soon shifted and Twenty- and seeking refuge behind the answer, and seeking refuge behind the answer.

good one," she said smilingly. Moved by her example, the bride and bride-groom posed with her on the steps for a group picture. Mrs. Hetty Green had asked the inquisitive one.

"She will have it all when I am dead," was the reply.

From the church the guests returned directly to the Inn, where the wedding breakfast was served to them at 10 o'clock. It was a quiet function, in keeping with the ceremony itself. The reserving after the breakfast was received as a follows:

FOR GIRL REFUSED; SHE IS FINED $1

Dennis Dillon, a street employee, ran Susan Hannigan Got Her Money's Worth on a Strenuous Night.

WHIPPED 2 BELLBOYS.

Routed Three Policemen and a Matron—Barnum Offered Bearville as Bail.

It is a mightly lucky thing for A big private policeman named Beatty, right arm and a sturdler left, not to last night to enliven the slumberous stillness of the Bearville apartments press reached Morristown at 10.20 o'clock at No. 565 West One Hundred and Magistrate O'Connor estimated her drove to the Morristown Inn, where Mr. strenuosity in the penal sum of $1 Wilks, his best man, and his sister, when the girl was arraigned in the Miss Catherine L. Wilks, had been since Harlem Court to-day, but when you consider that for the said dollar the While she waited for the hour of noon young lady neatly polished the tes-Mrs. Hetty Green sent out one message selated hallways with the two bellboys. to the newspaper men by a friend. This smashed the telephone switchboard, "The marriage is taking place at Mor- kicked in a mirror, dented half a dozen ristown because we have friends here. yards of gilt wainscot, punched Ma-It is to be a very quiet affair because tron Maloney, of the West One Hunof the recent death of my cousin, Miss dred and Twenty-fifth street station, on Roberts, one of my few surviving rela- the nose, scratched three policemen and tives. My daughter will be married in kicked one doorman, it's a pretty dreadthe travelling frock which she wore ful thing to consider what might have coming over this morning. It is of happened had the young lady let her-

Didn't Mind Expense. As far as mere money is concerned. Susan might have gone as far as she liked, shaken down and upheaved half of Washington Heights; for shortly after Policeman Brennan had escorted her to the station house her brother, Herbert E. Barnum, who is both tenant and owner of the Bearville apartments, appeared and offered to put up $100,000 to get his sister out of quod. First Mr. Barnum offered as bail the of flowers and the local organist played Bearville. Then he offered a whole row "If necessary," he said, "I can put up blocks of houses. It was an outrage But De Verona Is Certain He Collector of "Funds for News-Miss Green led the way on the arm of to arrest this young lady. She had a her cousin, Mr. Howland Pell, of New perfect right to do what she wanted those hallboys if she hasn't done so by the lieutenant on the desk that the girl had done fairly well by the Bearville's hall attendants, as one of them did the lady wish to go? That was

Louis T. Hoyt, Shipley Jones, Mrs. assistant, awoke and came up stairs to Duane Pell, Mrs. T. B. Williams, Miss see why the telephone switchboard was good one," she said smilingly. Moved by her example, the bride and bridegroom posed with her on the steps for a group picture. Mrs. Hetty Green had slipped off her sait topcoat and removed her small gray hat. About her throat was a collar of rich Irish lace. Her gray hair for the first time in her life had been done in a pompadour that was vastly becoming to her shrewd old face. She looked ten years younger than she usually does.

"What did you give your daughter as a wedding present?" called out a man from the crowd.

"What would your mother give you?" parried the old lady. "I gave her my love, and when I die she will have a gray dwen I die she will have a gray die the inquisitive one.

"She will have tall when I am dead."

"TAMPA ENTRIES.

"TAMPA Fla., Feb. 23—The entries"

"I can't remember."

When Mr. Baldwin took the witness the fine due used took the witness than he questioned him as the tooket the witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation. The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation. The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The witness frankly admitted hearing the conversation.

The block of the marked bear of the opinion that Fuller is a collected.

The block was a frame-up when the give with the said the said the conversation.

The block was a frame-up when the give with

Girl Fined $1 for Being Strenuous, and Man Who Offered $100,000 Bail

WITNESS AGAINST FISCHER-HANSEN LOSES MEMORY

the wedding of the woman who will Susan Hannigan sauntered into the through which the alleged attempt to tels, with the result that a trap was set Mr. Wilks's three sisters, Miss Catnerine Wilks, Mrs. Byam Stevens and Mrs.

None of the dark complected Mr. Blake's business. He persisted until a diamond business through which the alleged attempt to for the youth at the Park Avenue Hotel greeted it very much."

"Who did you support for Governor?" mony, it is alleged, was changed by a to-day into which he readily walked. mony, it is alleged, was changed by a monetary inducement given by Fischer-Hansen when he was placed on trial charged with extortion of money from Joseph O'Brien and several others. In

BUSY WITH OLD SWINDLING GAME

"WE BOYS" AGAIN

been greatly annoyed of late by the persistent manner in which a young man importuned them for subscriptions Among those to complain to the police

AWARDS OF PROPERTY. | Coo

introduced a bill to-day which gives about?"
the Board of Estimate and Apportion-

ALDERMEN TAKE ANGEL, CARMACK FIRST STEP FOR PLAY CENSORSHIP CALLED COOPER

Which Led to Killing of the Senator.

LITTLE BALDY

COLONEL ON THE STAND

Was Broken When He Supported Rival Candidate.

of Col. Duncan B. Cooper, Robin Cooper to the Committee on Laws and Legisla- dis imposed a fine of $29,240,000 on the every word. Col. Cooper said he was sixty-four years old and that he has four sons and two daughters. Gen. Washington had the witness give his war record with Forrest. The State finally objected, after some recital, and

"Were your relations friendly?" "More than friendly-they were cordial and close until his race with Senator Taylor four years ago. Then we disagreed.' "Did Carmack ever give expression to sentiments of gratitude to you?" "Yes, when he went to Memphis in 1892 he wrote an editorial thanking me." The defense offered the editorial and Judge Hart asked to see it.

He marked part of it and said he would permit that portion to go to the jury. It was signed by E. W. Carmack. The State next examined it and "Have you that letter?"

"I have." Witness produced it.

First Note of Discord. "What was the first note of discord between you and Senator Carmack?" "The relations were not cordial dur-Court before Justice Dowling.

De Verona was employed in the office of the defendant lawyer and took fice of the defendant lawyer and took was deposited by the considerable part in the negotiations was defended by the negotiations was defended by the considerable part in the negotiations was defended by the considerable part in the negotiations.

Among those to complain to the police of the carmack-Taylor Senatorial during the Carmack-Taylor Senatorial contents. The first offensive note appeared to the complain to the police of the defendant lawyer and took was depended by the considerable part in the negotiations.

owned.

Col. Cooper was questioned about the joint debate between Carmack and Patterson and asked if he ever learned that Carmack was using his name in

'Yes, yery often. It began in a spirit with a sulphurous smell."

"Who was the angel he was talking "A man named Dunc Cooper, supposed to be myself," Cooper said in response.

PROSECUTOR IN PANAMA CASES HERE TO-MORROW.

TAMPA Pla. Peb. 22—The entries directly to the inn, where the wedding breakfast was served to them at the receiption after the breakfast was served to them at the receiption after the breakfast was served to them at the receiption after the breakfast was also very informal. It ended at 23, when mother, went about the Cornell of the receiption after the breakfast was also very informal. It ended at 23, when mother, went about the Provides in the cornell of the receiption after the breakfast was also very informal. It ended at 23, when mother, went about the Provides in the provides in the provides in the provides in the provides of the provides of

That Helped Start Trouble Resolution Provides That City Counsel for Trust Objects to Officials Shall Pass meeting of the Board to-day calling for in the object of protecting the morals Rethea had refused to have anything to NASHVILLE, Feb. 23.-When the total of the people, voted for the reference do with it.

On Them.

> is expected that a favorable report will be reached.

The resolution calls for the appoint-He is somewhat bald, but what ment by the Mayor of several prominent profit by the manoeuvrings of the lawcity officials, who will pass upon the manuscript of all plays intended to be manuscript of all plays intended to be free from wrinkles. As he began to talk his two daughters leaned forward in their seats and eagerly followed every word. Col. Cooper said he was the Press there has been a great deal of agitation respecting the censorship of plays, it being contended that for the sake of the morals of the community there should be an official commission appointed for such purpose; therefore

But De Verona Is Certain He Got Part of Money Paid Macaluso. Collector of "Funds for Newspapermen's Home" Nabbed With List of Victims. The deferred cross-examination of Joseph De Verona, the law clerk, was along Fifth avenue and Broadway have been greatly annoyed of late by the state next examined it and agreed to let the entire editorial in. The court agreed. It was in the paper of Feb. 12, 182, and was Carmack's farewell, in which he expressed regret at leaving the American, and gratitude to the paper and its friendles. "Did you, after he left, maintain friendly relations?" "Absolutely 80. We corresponded, and the last very friendly letter I had from him was in December, 1904, Our relations were pleasant after that, however. At that time he was in the United States Senate." HUGHES AND TALKS OF VOTERS' RIGHTS

Direct Nominations Plan of Governor Leads Senator on to the Constitution.

ALBANY, Feb. 23.-Commenting on Gov. Hughes's plan for direct nominations as outlined in his speech in Brookbrother, Langdon Wilks; his brother-inlaw, Major W. Napier Keefer, of the British army, now stationed at Toronto;
Mr. and Mrs. Amory Carhart, of TuxMr. and Mrs. Amory Carhart, of TuxMr. and Mrs. Amory Carhart, of TuxMr. State State of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative tending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent packy. law which inevitably disfranchises in advance 20 per cent. or more of the voters, either at a general election of at the primaries, unless it is absolutely necessary to do so in order to prevent necessary to do so in order to prevent fraud, should be condemned.

"All provisions now in force for the had free of charge by writing direct to the enrolment or registration of voters do lifth Street, New York City." in fact deprive a large number of voters of their constitutional rights, and such "Yes, yery often. It began in a spirit of ridicule and he later charged me with corruption. His first reference was to a 'Little bald-headed angel named Dunc Cooper.' Later, referring to the 'angel,' he asked if the angel was white or black and were its feathers tainted with a sulphurous smell." publican party adopted at Saratoga recognizes those principles. "They should not be departed from in any proposed primary law. There may be, of course, differences of opinion as to what is necessary to prevent fraud and give a full and fair expression of the will of the voters, but any scheme which unnecessarily deprives the voter CASES HERE TO-MORROW.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23. — United States District-Attorney McNamara has been commissioned by Attorney-General Bonaparte as special assistant to the Attorney-General to aid in the prosecution of the Press Publishing Company, the editors of the New York World, and the owners of the Indianapolis News, recently indicted for alleged criminal libel of President Roosevelt, William H. Taft and others in connection with the purchase of the Panama Canal.

BRAINS

Rule the World.

Grape=Nuts

made of wheat and barley-is a true food for brain workers.

"There's a Reason"

STANDARD OIL FIGHTS TRIAL BY A FARMER JURY

Men Called in Second Trial of $29,000,000 Case.

The Board of Aldermen is going to CHICAGO, Feb. 23.-The second trial ut a muzzle on so-called indecent or of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana Tells How Their Friendship enywhere in the greater city. Alderman with shipments of oil from Whiting, Ind., Moskowitz presented a resolution at the to East St. Louis began to-day in the Federal District Court before Judge A. B. Anderson, of Indianapolis. Judge a public censorship of all plays. Every Anderson consented to hear the historic member of the Board, not to be outdone case after Judge Landis and Judge

This is the case in which Judge Lan first conviction. The fine was reversed This committee will hold public hear- by the Court of Appeals and the case ings on the proposed ordinance and it remanded for a new trial. The courtroom held a fair sized crowd, anxious to see the wheels of the great trial set in motion and attorneys who hoped to war record with Forrest. The State finally objected, after some recital, and was sustained.

"I met Senator Carmack years ago at Columbia, when he was quite young," answering a question. "I brought him to Nashville as editor of the American and he remained with me until 1892, when he went to Memphis."

More Than Friendly.

At the public hearing theatre manaly gers, playwrights, actors, clergymen and laymen who have at heart the elevation of the popular taste with reference to plays will be invited to speak.

Messrs. Litt and Dingwall, of the Broadway Theatre, notified President McGowan of the Board of Aldermen to day that they would send the entire company of "Stubborn Cinderella," including the ballet if necessary, to speak in behalf of the new ordinance, "and."

McGowan of the Board of Aldermen to-day that they would send the entire company of "Stubborn Cinderella," including the ballet if necessary, to speak in behalf of the new ordinance, "and," added Mr. Dingwall, "we have some eloquent suffragettes among our people."

The Moskowitz censorship resolution is as follows:

"Whereas, Between the Church and the Press there has been a great deal of agitation respecting the censorship of plays, it being contended that for the sake of the morals of the community there should be an official commission appointed for such purpose; therefore.

It is expected that all. Microsian in make his obening statement of the government of the government of the government's case on Thursday. Mr. Sims refused to disclose the intended procedure of the government in the technical points involved.

A skirmish signalized the opening of the proceedings. Judge Anderson had been on the bench but a few moments when John S. Miller, of the defense, filed a motion to quash the ventre of 150 men on the ground that it had been improperly drawn. Sixty per cent. of the ventre are farmers; only three are residents of Chicago and but sixteen live in Cook County, which contains two-thirds of the population within the court's jurisdiction.

Surprise was plainly visible on the court's jurisdiction.

Surprise was plainly visible on the face of District-Attorney Sims when Mr. Miller called attention to the personnel of the venire. He promptly recovered however, and sharply opposed the motion

HURT AT DEVERY'S "PUMP." Child Sues City for $20,000 Because

William Stephen Devery, once the witness before Justice McCall and a a witness before Justice McCail and a fury in the Supreme Court to-day in the trial of a suit brought by Henry Naftal, of No. 642 Eighth avenue, in behalf of his ten-year-old daughter, Pauline Naftal, against the city and the Pennsylvania Cab Company for $20,000 damages. The alleged damages were a fractured skull and a broken arm and other injuries sustained when she was four years old and was a Devery enthusiast, out to see the banner raising at "the pump," Eighth avenue and Twenty-eighth street, Aug. 3, 1903.

bomb frightened a team, which threw the girl against the "pump.

CLEARS THE COMPLEXION OVERNIGHT

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy. Since its discovery, one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordito-day issued a statement in which he nary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent spe-"Under our Constitution every voter is cialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching at-drug stores.

Samples for experimental purposes may be

SPECIAL FOR TO-DAY, 23d. CREAM KISSES .... POUND 100 PECIAL ASSORTED CHOCO-LATES (20 kinds)...POUND 190 SPECIAL FOR TO-MORROW, 24th. CHOCOLATE WALNUT POUND 100 SPECIAL ASSORTED CHOCO-LATES (20 kinds) POUND 190

For 63 years - from one store to

RIKER'S

Drug Stores New York, Brooklyn and have stood for all that was best and most reliable in the drug business.

FREE SAMPLE The Electro Silicon Co., 30 Cliff St., New York Sold by Grocers & Druggists Everywhere

CARBONA UNBURNABLE

Cleaning Fluid CANNOT EXPLODE

CANNOT BURN Replaces dangerous benzine and naphtha for all cleaning purposes.

15c, 25c, 50c & $1 Everywhere

Slip Covers Complete,

> Allowing 20 yards good, durable, dustproof Belgian linen, striped. Larger suits in proportion. Best

Write, phone or call and our man will call with sampes.

Re-upholstering rec in New York. 14.98
rec in New York. 14.98
rec in New York. 1VE

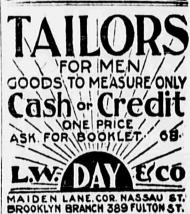

Slip Cover Co. Phone 4795 Chelsea 131 West 23d St.

Are You a Tea Drinker? TRY

Thea Nectar Tea

A Lb. Box-60c. THE GREAT

Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. 325 Stores in the United States.

Moths by the 1,000,000 Coming Your Way in March. Better Protect Your Clothes by Using the

M. P. MUTH PROOF GARMENT HANGER The simplest and most perfect method of protection against moths, as well as to keep clothes in shape. For sale in all department 25c stores. Price.

M. P. Meth Proof Garment Hanger Co., 109 East 0th St., New York.

DIED.

BERTOLINO.—On Sunday, Feb. 21, at 7.30 P. M., MRS, ELISE CONTI BERTOLINO, widow of Carlo Bertolino.

Funeral at her late residence, 215 E. 61st st., on Thursday, Feb. 25, at 10 A. M. Solemn requiem mass for the repose of her soul at the Church of St. Vincent Ferrer, 65th st. and Lexington av., at 10.30 A. M. Interment at Calvary Cemetery.

ULLIVAN,-Mrs. JANE CULLIVAN, nee Kelly, widow of James Cullivan, na-tive of County Cavan, Ireland, in the 59th year of her age. Funeral Wednesday morning from her late home, 109 Milton st., then to St. Anthony's Church, Greenpoint, at 9.30

WORLD WANTS WORK WONDERS,